FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspects sought in aggravated burglary

Shreveport Police detectives are seeking to identify two suspects who broke into a Shreveport residence Monday.

Shortly after Midnight on July 1, 2019, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to a home located in the 2900 block of E. Cavett Drive relative to a burglary. As officers arrived at the home, it was discovered that a male victim's home had been broken into by a pair of suspects wearing dark clothing, facial coverings and gloves.

The suspects were scared away after triggering an alarm which alerted the home owner. The home owner was not injured during the ordeal and no items were taken. The suspects were captured on video and police detectives are hopeful the images may lead to the identity and ultimate capture of those responsible for the crime. Persons with any information on the identity of the suspects is asked to call Crimestoppers at: (318) 673-7373 or visit P3tips.com to leave a tip online. Crimestoppers is offering a reward for information leading to the arrests of those persons responsible.
