SFD Goes Pink for Breast Cancer Awareness for 2nd Consecutive Year

“Firefighters in Pink”, the month-long Breast Cancer Awareness campaign sponsored by the Shreveport Fire Department, was announced by Fire Chief Craig Mulford today. Beginning Oct. 1st, every SFD member will substitute their conventional uniform for a custom t-shirt to show public support to the families affected by this disease.

Chief Mulford along with the Mayor Glover, and other officials will be on hand to unveil the new t-shirt design during a special press conference on Tues., Sept. 24, 2013 at 10:30 a.m. at Central Fire Station---263 North Common Street. The media is encouraged to attend. ###
