FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Second suspect jailed in connection with weekend slaying

A second suspect has been now been charged in connection with a deadly weekend shooting at a Shreveport apartment complex.

Shreveport Police investigators have charged 17 year old Cameron Boatwin with one count of accessory after the fact to manslaughter for his alleged role in the crime which left 18 year old Dayton Washington dead. Washington was shot and killed Sunday evening in the 6100 block of Tierra Drive while at the LaTierra Apartments. Boatwin now becomes the second suspect charged in the investigation following the Monday evening arrest of LaTroy Smith. Boatwin was arrested and booked into the Caddo Parish Correctional Center where his bond is set at $75,000.00.
