Two men now face charges in connection with the armed robbery of a local business Tuesday morning in west Shreveport.

Just after 9:30 a.m. on January 28, 2020, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the Thrifty Liquor store located in the 8400 block of Linwood Avenue. On officer's arrival there, it was learned one man entered the business armed with a firearm and demanded money from the store employee. After making off with an undisclosed amount of cash, the suspect fled from the business and entered an awaiting blue vehicle which sped away.

Officers were able to obtain a vehicle description and plate number of the suspect's vehicle. Authorities spotted the getaway car in the 9200 block of Slack Road, where two men were immediately detained. Upon further investigation, it was learned the two men were directly connected to the aforementioned robbery. Police detectives were notified of the matter and conducted subsequent interviews with the detained suspects. Following interviews, authorities charged 35 year old Julius Amos and 20 year old Isaiah Singleton with one count of first degree robbery. Both men were booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
