FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspect jailed in Friday morning slaying

Glen A. Brooks, Jr.

A local man is now behind bars accused in the death of a man found deceased outside a west Shreveport home early Friday morning.

Shortly after 2:10 a.m. on January 31, 2020, Shreveport Police patrol officers arrived at a home in the 3200 block of Alabama Avenue relative to a prowler call. Upon officer's arrival, they located a male victim unconscious on the ground. Members of the Shreveport Fire Department arrived at the residence and after accessing the patient, declared the man deceased on scene. Members of the Shreveport Police Department Violent Crimes Unit were called to the scene of the incident and launched an immediate investigation.

During the course of the probe, it was learned the victim, a 60 year old adult male, had been involved in a physical altercation with another man while at the residence. During the altercation, it is believed the victim suffered significant head trauma. Investigators gathered additional information which led authorities to arrest 54 year old Glen A. Brooks at his residence located in the 3500 block of Catherine Street in Shreveport. Brooks was transported to Shreveport Police headquarters where he was interviewed by detectives. Following subsequent interviews, Brooks was booked into the Shreveport City Jail on charges of Second Degree Murder.
