FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport man sought on domestic battery charges

Willie Kimble

Shreveport Police investigators are seeking the whereabouts of a man accused of Domestic Battery charges.

On March 28, 2020, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 3500 block of Darien Street relative to a domestic call. Upon arrival, officers made contact with a female victim who was suffering from a contusion to the left side of her face and several abrasions to multiple areas of her body. The victim advised she and her boyfriend, 44-year-old Willie Kimble, were involved in an argument that turned violent. Kimble allegedly struck the victim with the face multiple times with a closed fist. Investigators procured warrants for Kimble's arrest, charging him with one count of Domestic Battery, three counts of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment and one count of False Imprisonment.

Investigators are asking anyone with the whereabouts of Kimble to contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318 673-7373, lockemup.org or via their app, P3Tips.
