Police investigate Friday morning homicide

Investigators with the Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit are investigating the murder of a man in east Shreveport.

On June 19, 2020, just after 10:25 a.m., Shreveport Police officers were dispatched to the 6100 block of Henderson Avenue on reports of a deceased person. Arriving officers immediately suspected foul play and investigators were summoned to the scene.

Investigators learned that the male victim was last seen around midnight on the 19th. His employer came to his residence to pick him up for work and discovered him dead in his home. Detectives believe he died as a result of gunshot injuries but an autopsy is pending to confirm. Crime Scene investigators responded to process the scene and recover all evidence. Investigators canvassed the neighborhood and spoke with witnesses.

The Caddo Parish Coroner's Office took custody of the decedent and will release his name once he is properly identified and death notification has been made.

Investigators are asking any members of the public that have information relative to this homicide to contact them at 318-673-6955 or 318-673-7300. Those wishing to remain anonymous can contact Caddo Parish Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via their App, P3Tips. Crime Stoppers is offering a $2,000.00 cash reward for information leading to the identification and arrest of the individual(s) responsible for this murder. Remember, Crime Stoppers only wants your information, not your name.
