Detectives searching for man believed responsible for domestic abuse

Latrell Taylor

Shreveport Police Domestic Violence detectives are searching for a man accused of domestic violence following an early July incident in north Shreveport.

On July 9, 2020, just before midnight, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 2500 block of Dr. Martin Luther King Drive on reports of domestic violence. Arriving officers contacted the victim who disclosed that her estranged boyfriend, 30-year-old Latrell Taylor, battered her following a dispute. The battery occurred in the presence of minor children and the victim suffered non-life threatening injuries that required treatment at an area hospital.

On August 7, 2020, investigators procured a warrant for Taylor charging him with one count of Battery of a Dating Partner and three counts of Battery of a Dating Partner with Child Endangerment. No bond was set.

Taylor's last known address was in the 7300 block of Southern Avenue. Police are asking anyone with information as to Taylor's whereabouts to contact Shreveport Police at 318-673-7300 #3. Those wishing to submit information anonymously are asked to reach out to Caddo Shreveport Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Crime Stoppers pays cash for information that leads to the arrests of individuals responsible for committing crimes.
