Shreveport Police charge man with Armed Robbery

LaWillie Hays

Shreveport Police have arrested a man accused of robbing a couple in west Shreveport yesterday morning.

On August 7, 2020, just before 6:30 a.m., Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 3000 block of Bert Kouns at Ranchland on reports of an Armed Robbery. Arriving officers made contact with the victims who disclosed that while they were sitting in their vehicle on the parking lot of the business a male subject, later identified as 34-year-old LaWillie Hays, opened the car door and robbed them at gunpoint. Hays took a cell phone and car keys and fled on foot toward Southland Park Drive. A patrol officer who was circulating the area spotted Hays and attempted to stop him but Hays fled on foot. K9 Dice responded to the scene and took Hays into custody at a nearby apartment complex.

Following interviews with investigators, Hays was charged with Armed Robbery and Resisting an Officer and was subsequently booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
