Man charged with overnight domestic related stabbing

Shreveport Police Homicide detectives have charged a man following a domestic fueled stabbing in west Shreveport last night.

On September 3, 2020, just before 9:15 p.m., Shreveport Police responded to the 5000 block of Greenwood Road on reports of a stabbing. Arriving officers located 34-year-old Eric Stringer suffering from non-life threatening injuries. He was transported to Ochsner LSU Health for treatment.

Detectives with the Homicide division responded to the hospital and found inconsistencies in Stringer's statements. After further questioning of witnesses and the victim, detectives learned that Stringer attacked the female victim, striking her in the head with an object. When Stringer attempted to strike her again, the victim armed herself with a knife and stabbed Stringer in what detectives believe was an act of self-defense. Stringer then told the victim not to call 911.

Detectives charged Stringer with one count of Domestic Abuse Battery. He was also found to have a Caddo warrant for drug possession. Once released from Ochsner, Stringer will be transported and booked into the Shreveport City Jail.

Shreveport Police would like to remind the public that if you, a family member, or anyone you know is in a domestic violence situation, we can help. Call 318-673-7300#3 or call a Domestic Violence Detective at 318-673-6955.
