FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport Police search for man/woman in connection with beating

Meocha Evans

Chamichel Mosley

On August 8, 2020, just before 1:00 a.m., Shreveport Police patrol officers responded the 2900 block of Regent Street on reports of a battery. Arriving officers located the male victim who had suffered serious injuries to his legs and upper body. The victim disclosed that he was lured to a house in the block believing that he was meeting someone for a date. Once on scene he was severely beaten.

Detectives with Shreveport Police Department's Homicide Unit were assigned to the case. Through interviews and other investigative means, they were able to procure warrants charging 28-year-old Chamichel Mosely with one count of Aggravated Battery and 23-year-old Meocha Evans with Principle to Aggravated Battery. Bond was set at $5,000 for both.

Detectives are asking anyone with information about Mosely and Evans whereabouts to contact them at 318-673-6955 or 318-673-7300 #3. Those wishing to remain anonymous can contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via their app, P3Tips. Crime Stoppers is an anonymous tip service that with pay cash rewards for information leading to the identification and arrest of those responsible for crimes.
