Police make arrest in triple murder

Suspect Tobias Williams

Shreveport Police Homicide investigators have made an arrest in connection with the murder of three men in the Allendale neighborhood earlier in the month.

On October 6, 2020, just after midnight, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 1500 block of Garden Street on reports of shots being fired. Arriving officers located three Shreveport men, Rodney Bryant, 58, David Savore, 55, and Carl Pratt, 54, near a vacant residence. All were suffering from gunshot injuries and were pronounced deceased on the scene.

Homicide detectives launched their investigation immediately and following a week's long investigation they were able to identify Tobias Williams (DOB 4-29-1980) as one of the individuals responsible for these murders. Multiple factors led to Williams' identification, including a tip from Caddo Shreveport Crime Stoppers. On October 16, 2020, detectives procured an arrest warrant charging Williams with three counts of Second-Degree Murder. Bond was set at $2,250,000.00. He surrendered himself to Shreveport Police last night and following interviews with detectives, was booked into the Shreveport City Jail. Detectives are not releasing any further information at this time. More arrests are expected, and the investigation is ongoing.

Tobias Williams has been arrested by Shreveport Police for multiple offenses, including murder and attempted murder in the past.
