FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police seeking identities of armed robbery suspects

Unidentified Suspects

On October 22, 2020 just after 10:40 a.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to reports of an armed robbery in the 4900 block of Mansfield Road. On scene, officers were advised that two black males entered in a trailer of a delivery truck and took a case of Hennessy. When the driver of the truck confronted the suspects, the suspects produced a handgun and escaped with the stolen item in a Silver Chevy Monte Carlo.

The suspects are described as two black males. The first suspect was described as wearing a black and red Cleveland Cavaliers shirt, dark pants and had an earring in his right ear. The second suspect was described as wearing a gray or dark colored hoodie and had short dreads

Investigators assigned to the case secured photographs taken from video surveillance attached to the building and are releasing those photographs to the public in hopes of getting this individuals identified. Detectives are asking anyone who can identify these subjects to contact 318-673-7300 option 3. Those wishing to remain anonymous are asked to contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via their app, P3Tips.
