FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

South Shreveport business targeted in Saturday morning robbery

A south Shreveport business was robbed at gunpoint during early Saturday morning.

On Saturday November 7, 2020 after 5:00 a.m. Shreveport Police responded to a report of an armed robbery on 7950 Youree Drive at the Kangaroo Express. A black male wearing dark clothing and a hoodie entered the front of the business and demanded money after producing a handgun. After taking an undisclosed amount of cash, the suspect fled in an unknown direction.

Investigators with the Tactical Robbery Unit responded to this location. Detectives gathered surveillance video and interviewed employees. None of the employees were injured in either incident and no shots were fired. This investigation is on-going
