Suspect in deadly stabbing captured

A Shreveport man wanted in connection with a deadly stabbing and attempted murder of a police officer is behind bars this morning.

Late afternoon on December 9, 2020, local law enforcement officials received information that homicide suspect, Courtney Taylor was at a residence in the 1700 block of Old Benton Road in Bossier City, LA.

The United Marshalls Violent Crimes Task Force in conjunction with multiple local law enforcement agencies from Shreveport and Bossier located Taylor at the Oasis Apartments on Old Benton Road. He was taken into custody and booked into the Bossier City Jail pending extradition to Shreveport.

In addition to Cortney Taylor, police also arrested and charged the following accomplices in connection with this crime:

- Charade Washington , 12/17/94 DOB for Accessory After the Fact
- Quintarious Johnson , 06/02/95 DOB for Accessory After the Fact
- Kendra Hines , 06/23/82 DOB for Accessory After the Fact

This was a collaborative effort with all of the local law enforcement agencies involved.
