Man charged in connection with multiple business burglaries

Kendrell Thomas

A Shreveport man is behind bars this morning after being charged with multiple business burglaries.

At around 12:30 a.m. this morning, Shreveport Police responded the 6600 block of Line Avenue at the Sonic Drive-in relative to a business burglary. Officers located Kendrell Thomas 05/08/2001 leaving the area in a vehicle. A traffic stop was initiated by officers and Thomas was detained.

Investigators with the Property Crimes division were summoned to this location. After reviewing video surveillance, detectives learned that Thomas had committed a burglary at this location. Through their investigation, detectives were also able to connect Thomas to other nearby recent business burglaries at a Church's Chicken, Bumper to Bumper and Family Dollar.

Thomas was charged with four counts of Simple Burglary and two counts of Theft of a Motor Vehicle. Following an interview with detectives, he was booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
