FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspect sought in Friday evening shooting

Tevin Holden

Shreveport Police have identified a man wanted in connection with a shooting this past Friday, leaving a woman seriously injured.

On Friday, January 15, 2021, Shreveport officers responded to the 3100 block of Ashton Street relative to a shooting. Officers located an adult female, Porchea Oliver, suffering from a gunshot injury to the upper body. The victim was transported to Ochsner LSU Health with life-threatening injuries.

Violent Crimes and Crime Scene investigators responded to this location and began their investigation by processing the crime scene. Detectives were able to locate and interview witnesses to this shooting. Based on the evidence and witness statements, investigators were able to determine that the victim's boyfriend, Tevin Holden (age 27), shot the victim after a dispute.

Investigators procured an arrest warrant charging Holden with one count of Attempted Second Degree Murder. Police are asking anyone with information about Tevin Holden's whereabouts to contact Shreveport Police immediately at 318-673-7300 #3 or 318-673-6955. Those wishing to remain anonymous are asked to call Caddo-Shreveport Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via their app, P3Tips.
