SPD makes double arrest on burglary in progress

Tracy Moore Jr.

Charkendrick Mims

Shreveport Police have captured two overnight home burglars in the act of breaking into a residence.

On January 21, 2021, at around 3:00 a.m. Shreveport Police responded to the 100 block of Freemont Avenue relative to a burglary in progress. The homeowner, who was out of town, alerted police after observing two unknown males on her home security camera and inside her residence. Officers quickly arrived and secured the residence. When police made entry into the home, both males were located inside the home's attic. The males, identified as Tracy Moore Jr. (age 28) and CharKendrick Mims (age 32) were taken into custody.

Detectives with the Property Crimes responded to this location. Following an interview with investigators, both Mims and Moore were charged with one count of Burglary of an Inhabited Dwelling. Both suspects were booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
