FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Single-vehicle crash ends tragically

A single-vehicle crash has ended tragically this Friday morning. Just before 7:00 a.m. Shreveport Police responded to a major crash in the 3000 block of Curtis Lane. Officers located a white Hyundai sedan that had made an impact with a large tree. The vehicle was occupied by one adult male who was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Crash investigators responded to this location to investigate how this crash occurred. Preliminary investigation suggested that the driver lost control of the vehicle while traveling in the 3000 block Curtis Lane and struck a large tree. This crash investigation is on-going. The driver will be identified at a later time.
