FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Second arrests made in Argyle Street Shooting

Jerol Leo Ewell

Alexander Coleman

Chasity Brown

Shreveport Police Violent Crimes Detectives have made two additional arrests in connection with an early February shooting that left one man critically injured. Investigators with the assistance of the United States Marshal's Task Force located and arrested Alexander Coleman in the 3000 block of Gaywood Drive in Shreveport. Detectives procured an arrest warrant back on February 6, 2021, charging Jerol Leo Ewell and Alexander Coleman (21) with one count of Attempted First Degree Murder. Ewell was arrested back on February 9, 2021. Chasity Brown (30) was also arrested for one count of Accessory After the Fact to Attempted First Degree Murder. Following an interview with investigators, both Brown and Coleman were booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
