Suspect arrested after male fatally wounded in Highland

Fabian Q. Alexander

A man has been arrested in connection with a fatal shooting that occurred in the Highland neighborhood Tuesday night. Just before 9:00 p.m. on March 09, 2021, Shreveport Police responded to the 100 block of E. Wichita Street relative to a shooting. Officers located an adult male later identified as Robert Jerome Lemmon (57) unresponsive and not breathing. The victim had suffered from multiple gunshot injuries while sitting in a vehicle and was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Violent Crimes and Crime Scene investigators responded to this location and began their investigation. Investigators worked throughout the night and most of the day Wednesday gathering evidence and following leads. Detectives were able to determine that Fabian Q. Alexander(25) allegedly walked up and shot the victim multiple times which resulted in his death. On Wednesday, March 10, 2021, investigators were able to locate Alexander. Following an interview with detectives, he was charged with one count of Second Degree Murder. Alexander was booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
