Man slain following dispute

A Shreveport man has been slain following a dispute with another male in the Cedar Grove neighborhood. Early Saturday morning on March 20, 2021, at around 2:20 a.m., Shreveport Police responded to the 800 block of Robinhood Street for a shooting. Officers located adult male Jodeci Fisher (28) suffering from multiple gunshot injuries to the upper body. Fisher was pronounced deceased at the scene.

Violent Crime and Crime Scene investigators responded to this location and began their investigation. Multiple witnesses were interviewed and evidence was collected. Preliminary information suggested that Fisher was visibly armed with a firearm and voluntarily came to a residence at this location. Fisher engaged in an altercation with the home occupant, Perry Snow. Snow feared for his and his family's safety and fired shots at Fisher, striking him multiple times. At this time, no arrests have been made. This is an on-going investigation.
