Listening sessions will provide insight on how to spend federal dollars

Mayor Adrian Perkins will hold community listening sessions across Shreveport to learn how citizens would like federal dollars spent at the local level.

The discussions will focus on four topics – public safety, infrastructure, economic development and technology. Residents are encouraged to complete a survey at www.shreveportla.gov and rank funding priorities.

Community meetings will be held in every Council District from 6-8 p.m. at the following locations:

Thursday, May 13	C.E. Byrd High School Auditorium
Tuesday, May 18	Broadmoor Presbyterian*
Thursday, May 20	Mamie Hicks Community Center
Tuesday, June 1	David Raines Community Center
Thursday, June 3	A. B. Palmer Community Center
Thursday, June 10	Southern Hills Community Center
Tuesday, June 15	Airport Park Community Center
Thursday, June 17	Bill Cockrell Community Center
Thursday, June 24	Bilberry Park Community Center

*This meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.
