FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Man arrested after shooting that left another seriously injured

Tommy Lewis, Jr.

An early Monday morning shooting has landed one Shreveport man in jail and another man seriously injured.

On Monday July 19, 2021, just before 1:00 a.m., Shreveport Police Patrol Officers responded to the 1600 Block of Fullerton Street relative to a shooting. Arriving officers located a 52-year-old male suffering from a single gunshot injury to the neck. The victim was transported to Ochsner Health with possible life-threatening injuries.

Violent Crimes and Crime Scene Investigators were summoned to the scene. Investigators interviewed witnesses and collected evidence. While on-scene, Detectives learned that the suspect was inside a nearby apartment at this location. Investigators were able to procure a search warrant for the apartment and detain Tommy Lewis Jr (12/03/86). Following a search of the apartment and an interview with Lewis, he was charged with one count of Attempted Second Degree Murder and one count of Convicted Felon in Possession of a Firearm. Lewis was also charged with multiple outstanding arrest warrants. He was booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
