SHREVEPORT FIRE COMMUNICATIONS TO HOLD GRADUATION AND PROMOTIONAL CEREMONY

Fire Chief Scott Wolverton is proud to announce the graduation of basic training for six Fire Communication Officers and the promotion of three others.

Stephanie Walsh, Brittney Stewart, Andrea Smith, Emma Ryan, Kourtney McCauley, Alexis Morris, and Brittany Woodel will graduate as a Fire Communication Officer I. The recruits started phase 1 (3 months) training to become certified in public safety telecommunications, fire service communications, emergency medical dispatch, computer aided dispatch, and various other disciplines. After graduation they will be required to complete a supervised three month on-the-job training module, before being released by themselves.

Aqueelah McCray is being promoted to Fire Communications Officer II. The competitive promotion comes after she has proudly served over 19 years in communications and successfully met all civil service requirements.

Dusty Moore is being promoted to Assistant Chief of Communications. She will assist the Chief of Communication oversee over 40 employees. This competitive promotion comes after her 17 years of dedicated service in communications.

Tina Chambers is being promoted to the Chief of Communications. Chief Chambers has been with the department since 1997 and has served in all ranks in the communication division. Chief Chambers will lead over 40 employees who are the initial first responders for emergencies. Chief Chambers competitive promotion comes after the retirement of Chief Kim Tolliver who served the department faithfully for over 22 years.
