Officers terminated following policy violations / indictments

Shreveport Police Chief Wayne Smith terminated three officers on Friday.

Corporal Leroy Bates was terminated following an administrative investigation where it was determined that he violated departmental rules and regulations and a Grand Jury indictment for allegations of Third-Degree Rape and Indecent Behavior with a Juvenile. Bates had been with the department since February of 2009.

Officer William Isenhour was terminated following his federal indictment for allegedly assaulting two arrestees in Shreveport. Eisenhour had been with the department since July of 2018.

Officer D'Andre Jackson was terminated following his federal indictment for allegedly assaulting two arrestees in Shreveport. Jackson had been with the department since August of 2017

These matters are still pending adjudication and no further information will be given.
