Officers terminated following policy violations / indictments

Shreveport Police Chief Wayne Smith terminated two officers on today.

Chief Administrative Assistant Marcus Mitchell was terminated following an administrative investigation where it was determined that he violated departmental rules and regulations. Mitchell had been with the department since February of 2009.

Officer Treveion Brooks was terminated following his federal indictment for allegedly assaulting two arrestees in Shreveport. Brooks had been with the department since August of 2017.

These matters are still pending adjudication and no further information will be given.
