Mayor Perkins to join President Biden for signing of Infrastructure Bill

Mayor Adrian Perkins will attend the signing of the bipartisan Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act at 2 p.m. (CST) on Monday, November 15 at the White House.

“Investing in our infrastructure is not a partisan issue, but vital to strengthen our community and to ensure Shreveport’s future success,” said Mayor Adrian Perkins. “The Infrastructure Bill will benefit every Louisianan, through good paying jobs, road projects, high speed internet connection and clean drinking water. It was critical to take bold measures to modernize infrastructure for our residents who depend upon it for their quality of life.”

Throughout the process of passing this landmark legislation, Mayor Perkins has communicated with White House staff about how essential this bill is for the City of Shreveport that already has shovel-ready projects waiting for funding. He has also expressed his appreciation of Senator Bill Cassidy for his integral role in this once-in-a-generation investment.
