Shreveport Police hosts “Pinwheels for Prevention Campaign”

The month of April is recognized as National Child Abuse Awareness Month. On April 6, 2022, at 9:00 a.m., on the front lawn of the Shreveport Police Department, pinwheels, which serve as symbols of support for all victims of child abuse, will be prominently displayed on the front lawn. SPD Sergeant Brandon Ortiz and his wife, Anissa Ortiz, a Police Communications Officer designed this year’s garden.

We invite all local police agencies, government officials, media partners, community outreach groups, and any citizens who would like to stand with us to show solidarity and commitment to ending child abuse to join us.
