

Shreveport Police Department
Chief Wayne Smith

Media Inquiries:

shreveportdpio@shreveportla.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

6/1/2022

Arrest made in violent domestic incident

Suspect Leasia Williams

On Tuesday, May 31st, 2022, at 10:00p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a 911 call in the area of Clyde Fant Parkway and Shreveport Barksdale Highway.

The responding officers located a male victim that had been struck by a vehicle multiple times. The victim alleged that his girlfriend chased and intentionally struck him with her vehicle following a conversation between the two.

Investigators with the Domestic Violence Unit were summoned to the scene. The victim's girlfriend, Leasia Williams (06/15/1998) was taken into custody for further investigation.

After further investigation Williams was arrest and transported to Shreveport City jail for the offense of Attempted 2nd Degree Murder for her alleged involvement. The injuries to the victim are classified as serious.

No other information at this time as this is still an on-going investigation.