Mayor to share his vision for Shreveport in his second State of the City address

Mayor Adrian Perkins hosts his second State of the City to discuss public safety, the economy, the city budget, and technology.

“I am looking forward to sharing the City’s goals and achievements,” said Mayor Perkins. “My administration has proven that we can turn obstacles into opportunities, and I look forward to highlighting some of our successes with the citizens of Shreveport.”

John Atkins, President of the Caddo Parish Commission, Justyn Dixon, President of North Louisiana Economic Partnership, and Dr. Lamar Goree, Superintendent of Caddo Parish Public Schools will provide updates during the program.

The media is invited to attend the Mayor’s address Thursday, November 3, 2022, behind the Shreveport Aquarium in Downtown Shreveport. The State of the City will be streamed live on the Mayor’s Facebook page starting at 5:30 p.m.
