Man arrested for tattooing children

On February 25th, 2023, Shreveport Police Officers contacted in reference to a report of an adult male tattooing multiple minors. Officers responded to a local establishment known as “New Ink Tattoo” and Juvenile Detectives were notified.

Further investigation revealed that Alejandro Reyes (4-25-2000) was believed to have tattooed three female juveniles. It was later determined that Reyes did not have a license to perform tattooing and did not have the consent of the children’s parents to perform the tattooing.

Alejandro Reyes was charged with three counts of for 3 counts of Tattooing or Piercing of a Minor. Investigation into this matter is ongoing.

Due to the changes in State Law booking photos are not available for this offense.
