Woman arrested for assault with my weapon while stealing

Gershunana Savore

On March 28th, 2023, at 5:20 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a theft from Home Depot in the 100 block of East Bert Kouns Industrial loop. On arrival, the responding officers learned that a female identified as Gershunana Savore (1-17-1985) was attempting to steal approximately 400 dollars' worth of merchandise.

Officers discovered that when the subject was confronted by asset protection personnel, she produces a taser and threatened to tase the employee. The suspect then fled and was located by officers hiding in the bathroom of a nearby fast-food restaurant.

Savore was arrested for one count of aggravated assault, one count of criminal trespass, and one count of theft.

All suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
