PRESS RELEASE

January 10, 2014

Mayor to announce legal boot camp for seniors

Mayor Cedric Glover is holding a news conference on Thursday, January 16, to announce a legal boot camp designed to offer critical information for senior citizens.

The media event will be held at 2 p.m. in the mayor's conference room at government plaza.

"The Northwest Louisiana Elder Law Boot Camp" is a free, educational seminar presented as a community service and will cover issues affecting seniors, their caregivers, relatives and professionals. The camp is being held Thursday, January 23, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Riverview Hall, 600 Clyde Fant Parkway.

The seminar is being hosted by the Caddo Council on Aging; Bossier Council on Aging; Elder Law Task Force; and the Governor's Office of Elderly Affairs. Seating is limited so those interested in participating should call (318) 676-7900 by January 15 to make reservations. Lunch will be provided.
