Man arrested for threatening with firearm

Chaz Cox

On April 12th, 2023, at 9:30 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a call of a white male pointing a firearm at a victim from inside of a vehicle in the 9700 block of Baird Road. On arrival, the responding officers learned that a male identified as Chaz Cox (3-3-1989) reportedly pointed a weapon at the victim.

Officers found that Cox had been threatening individuals while armed with a gun. Cox was arrested for one count of aggravated assault. Further charges are pending.

All suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
