Woman arrested for placing bleach in someone's drink

On April 12th, 2023, Shreveport Police Patrol Violent Crimes detectives were contacted in reference to a female pouring a harmful substance into a person's drink in the 200 block of Lake Street. During this investigation, Dominique Jones (12-1-01) was observed on video footage that reportedly showed Jones putting industrial-strength bleach in the victim's Coke bottle. Later the victim took a drink.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Jones for one count of Mingling Harmful Substances. On April 24th Jones was taken into custody and booked into city jail.

Due to the changes in the Law that deem this a non-violent crime, the Shreveport Police is not legally allowed to release the offenders booking photo.
