Woman strikes man with car

Mary Murphy

On May 21st, 2023, at 4:15 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a call of a vehicle striking a pedestrian in the 3900 block of Sumner Street. On arrival, the responding officers found that a female had reportedly struck a male with a vehicle intentionally. It was later determined that the incident stemmed from a domestic dispute.

The suspect was identified as Mary Murphy (9/22/54). Murphy was taken into custody by officers without incident and charged with one count of aggravated battery. The victim was uninjured.

All suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
