

Shreveport Police Department
Chief Wayne Smith

Media Inquiries:

shreveportdpio@shreveportla.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

9/5/2023

Man at bar attacks officer

Dylan Lewis

On September 3rd, around 1:38 a.m. 2023, Shreveport Police Officers were called to a Disorderly Person call at a bar in the 3000 block Girard Street. On arrival, officers contacted Dylan Lewis (7-3-26) who was reportedly causing a disturbance at the location.

During contact with Lewis, officers reported he became combative and attacked one of the officers. Lewis was eventually tased and taken into custody by multiple officers. The officer is expected to make a full recovery.

Lewis was charged with one count of felony battery on a Police Officer, one count of resisting with force or violence, one count of possession of a Schedule two narcotic, and one count of entering and remaining after forbidden.

We are required to remind that all persons are innocent until proven guilty.