Man Arrested For Sex Offense Against A Minor

Brandon Moore

On November 13, 2023, the Shreveport Police Department apprehended Brandon Moore on one count of second-degree rape. The arrest follows a meticulous investigation into the alleged incident involving a 13-year-old child.

Brandon Moore (10-28-92) stands accused of a serious offense and our department remains steadfast in its commitment to upholding the law and safeguarding the community. Moore is currently in custody, and legal proceedings will unfold as the justice system takes its course.

If convicted, he could face up to 40 years in prison. We are required to state that all suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
