Shreveport Police Department Arrests Home Invasion Incident

Timothy Newton

In a rapid response to a 911 call on November 15, at approximately 12:45 P.M., the Shreveport Police Department acted swiftly to apprehend a suspect involved in a home invasion incident in the 9000 block of Marva Drive.

Responding to reports of a man allegedly armed with a weapon and forcibly attempting to enter his neighbor's residence, officers on the scene promptly identified and apprehended Timothy Newton, 57 years of age, as the individual responsible for the disturbance.

Newton was taken into custody without further incident, and he now faces one count of home invasion. The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of our community and will continue to diligently investigate and respond to incidents that threaten the security of our residents.

We are required to advise that all suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
