Arrest Made In Connection To Home Invasion, Armed Robbery, And Other Offenses

On February 6, at approximately 12:20 AM, alert Shreveport Police Officers contacted a suspicious person in the 6700 block of Financial Circle. The officers, who were actively patrolling the area due to recent burglaries, encountered and subsequently apprehended a suspect identified as Antoine Hall, 24 years of age.

Upon further investigation, it was determined that Hall was wanted in connection with a home invasion and armed robbery incident that occurred on November 29, 2023, in the 700 block of Sanders Bayou Court. Additionally, Hall had outstanding warrants related to charges of battery of a dating partner and illegal possession of weapons.

As a result of the arrest, Hall has been charged with multiple offenses, including one count of felony illegal possession of weapons, one count of armed robbery, one count of home invasion, and one count of battery of a dating partner.

This diligent action of our Shreveport Police Officers has led to the apprehension of a suspect linked to serious criminal activities in our community.
