Progress In Plans For New Shreveport Police Station

The Shreveport Police Department, in collaboration with city officials and architects, is progressing in the construction of the new police headquarters located at 1234 Texas Avenue. Yesterday and today, key stakeholders including members of the Shreveport Police Department, city government representatives, and architects are convening to discuss the upcoming demolition and construction phases of this transformative project.

Chief Smith and Mayor Tom Arceneaux led a comprehensive tour of the current police station, providing insights into the evolving plans and strategies for this monumental undertaking. This initiative marks a crucial step forward in enhancing the infrastructure and capabilities of law enforcement within the city of Shreveport.

The new police headquarters promises to be a state-of-the-art facility equipped with the latest technology and amenities to support the evolving needs of the community and law enforcement personnel. It will serve as a beacon of safety and security, fostering closer collaboration between law enforcement agencies and the residents they serve.

Stay tuned for further updates as we continue to advance towards the realization of this vital project for the Shreveport community.
