Convicted Felon Found in Possession of Firearm

Marcell Lewis

On February 10th, just after midnight, Shreveport Police officers responded to a call regarding an armed individual in the 9000 block of Mansfield Road. Upon arrival, officers encountered 28-year-old Marcell Lewis, who was found in possession of a firearm.

A thorough investigation revealed that Lewis was a convicted felon, legally prohibited from possessing a firearm. Consequently, he was promptly arrested on one count of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

This incident underscores the Shreveport Police Departments commitment to ensuring the safety and security of our community by taking guns that are illegally possessed off the streets.
