Man Wanted For Felony Domestic Abuse

Adrian Scott

The Shreveport Police Department is actively seeking the whereabouts of 28-year-old Adrian Scott in connection with an incident of felony domestic abuse.

On January 15th, 2024, authorities responded to a distress call reporting a domestic disturbance in the 5100 block of Westwood Park Drive. Upon arrival, officers found a victim who had been reportedly forcibly dragged to a wooded area and subjected to physical assault. The victim, fortunately, is expected to recover from their injuries.

Following this incident, detectives from the Domestic Violence Unit launched an investigation. Warrants have since been issued for the arrest of Adrian Scott. He faces charges including one count of Domestic Abuse Battery with serious bodily injury and Simple Kidnapping.

The Shreveport Police Department urges anyone with pertinent information regarding Adrian Scott's whereabouts to come forward and assist in his apprehension. Please contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300 #3 with any information you may have.

All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty under state law.
