Cooperative Effort Leads To Arrest Of Felon With Firearm

Tramarcia George

In a joint effort between the Shreveport Police Violent Crimes Abatement Team, Shreveport Police Warrant Unit, Shreveport City Marshals Office, and the United States Marshals, a wanted suspect was apprehended on February 20th at approximately 4 p.m. in the 2700 block of Stanberry Drive.

Law enforcement officers converged on the residence and successfully took Tramarcia George, 25 years of age, into custody. During the arrest, George was found to be in possession of narcotics and a firearm. Subsequent investigation revealed that George was a convicted felon, leading to charges of being a convicted felon in possession of a firearm.

The Shreveport Police Department expresses its gratitude to the Shreveport City Marshals Office and the United States Marshals Services for their invaluable assistance in this case. Collaboration between agencies is instrumental in ensuring the safety and security of our communities.

This arrest serves as a testament to the dedication and effectiveness of law enforcement agencies working together to apprehend individuals who pose a threat to public safety. The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to its mission of protecting and serving the citizens of Shreveport.

All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty under state law.
