Officers Make Arrest In Aggravated Flight By Convicted Felon

Demarue Jones

On March 29th, at approximately 5:50 p.m., Shreveport Police Patrol Officers were involved in an incident involving the aggravated flight of a motor vehicle. Officers attempted to stop a male operating a white Chevy vehicle in the 2900 block of Dupont Street.

The individual, identified as 27-year-old Demarue Jones, refused to comply with officers' commands to stop, initiating a pursuit that spanned through the adjacent neighborhood. The efforts of our dedicated officers ultimately led to the apprehension of Jones, who was operating the vehicle during the pursuit.

Further investigation found that Jones was in possession of a Firearm however he is prohibited from doing so due to being a convicted felon.

Jones now faces the following charges:

1. One count of aggravated flight from an officer
2. Possession of Schedule of two
3. Convicted felon in possession of a firearm
4. Driving under suspension

We must remind that suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
