Shreveport Police Department Seeks Attempted Murder Suspect

Gary Jordan

The Shreveport Police Department is urgently seeking the public's assistance in locating 59-year-old Gary Jordan, who is wanted for one count of attempted second-degree murder.

On April 24, 2024, a shooting incident transpired in the 2400 block of Stonewall Street, resulting in life-threatening injuries to the victim. Detectives remind the public that Jordan is considered armed and dangerous.

The victim continues grappling with critical injuries inflicted during the incident. As such, the Shreveport Police Department is asking anyone with information regarding Gary Jordan's whereabouts to come forward immediately.

The Shreveport Police Department urges individuals to exercise caution and refrain from approaching Jordan, but instead report any sightings or information to law enforcement promptly.

Anyone with relevant information is encouraged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at 318-673-7300.

We are required to remind that all suspects are innocent until found guilty.
