Arrest Made in Domestic Dispute Involving Child

Atravious Marshall

In response to a call reporting a domestic dispute, Shreveport Police intervened, resulting in the arrest of Atravious Marshall, a 36-year-old resident. The incident occurred on March 8th, 2024, around midnight, at the 8400 Block of Clarice Drive.

Upon arrival, officers discovered the victim displaying marks consistent with strangulation, indicative of a violent altercation. Disturbingly, the altercation unfolded in the presence of a three-month-old infant, heightening concerns for the safety of all involved parties.

Marshall has been charged with domestic abuse by strangulation and domestic abuse battery with a child present. The Shreveport Police Department is committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of all residents, particularly the most vulnerable among us.

The Shreveport Police Department encourages individuals facing domestic violence to reach out to local authorities or organizations specializing in domestic abuse support services for assistance.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
