Armed Suspect Apprehended After High-Speed Police Pursuit

Erick Griffins

On May 10th, Shreveport Police Officers engaged in a pursuit of a vehicle at the intersection of Linwood Avenue and Wallace Road. The driver, identified as Erick Griffins, 44 years old, defied orders to halt, igniting a chase weaving through the city's streets.

Amidst the pursuit, the driver discarded a firearm from the vehicle, further endangering public safety. The discarded weapon was later recovered further evidence of the potential violence of the situation.

The pursuit reached its conclusion in the 600 block of Argyle, where officers successfully apprehended the suspect, Erick Griffins. Griffins now faces a litany of charges, including aggravated flight from officers, aggravated property damage, possession with intent to distribute scheduled narcotics, possession with intent to distribute a schedule one narcotic, illegal use of a weapon, illegal carrying of weapons, and resisting arrest.

The Shreveport Police Department commends the swift and decisive actions of its officers in bringing this dangerous situation to a close, prioritizing public safety above all else.

Suspects are innocent until proven guilty.
