Shreveport Police Seek Assistance in Locating Three Noncompliant Sex Offenders

Tony Savoy

Kevin Warren

David White

The Shreveport Police Department's sex crimes unit is urgently seeking the public's assistance in locating three individuals who are noncompliant sex offenders. These individuals are legally obligated to register as sex offenders due to convictions for sexually based crimes.

The first individual being sought is 51-year-old Tony Savoy, who failed to comply following a conviction for felony sexual battery. The second individual is 37-year-old Kevin Warren, who also failed to comply after a conviction for indecent behavior with a juvenile. Lastly, 57-year-old David White is wanted for failing to comply after a conviction for contributing to the delinquency of juveniles performing sexually immoral acts. Notably, White has six prior convictions for failing to register as a sex offender.

Members of the public with any information regarding the whereabouts of these individuals are urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department immediately. Your cooperation could be crucial in ensuring the safety of our community.
